

November 12-16, 2018

I hope you are all staying healthy! With the change in seasons and the colder weather setting in, it seems like the germs like to find warm places (us!) to land. Hopefully you all were able to kick back and enjoy some quality family time this weekend.

Important Things to Remember This Week:

- Report Cards Go Home with Students - Monday, November 12 (TODAY!!)
- Parent Teacher Conferences - Tuesday, Nov. 13 and Thursday, Nov. 15
- Workout Wednesday (Wear workout clothes!) - Wednesday, Nov. 14
- Homework Folders with #2.4, #2.5, and #2.6 Due – Wednesday, November 14
- Early Dismissal for Students - Thursday, November 15 at 12:00

I think that is everything. Wow! There is a lot going on this week.

Homework is being sent home again this week. It will come home Wednesday and will be due back in 2 weeks on Wednesday. There won't be any homework due next Wednesday (11/21) because of Thanksgiving break. It will be placed in your child's homework folder. Look for the 3 math sheets. Reading is also very important when you can squeeze it in each night. Your child will benefit greatly from the extra effort. 😊

I am looking forward to Parent/Teacher Conferences taking place this week, Nov. 13 and Nov. 15. If you are unsure of your time, jot me a note or send an email, and I can confirm that with you. I love to spend this time discussing how wonderful your children are and ways to help them be even more successful in second grade. Thursday will be a half-day for students so that teachers can meet with parents in the afternoon. Dismissal will be at noon.

Please remember that eventually (and unfortunately) the weather will get colder, and students will still be expected to go outside for recess. Make sure your child wears appropriate outer gear to school to help them stay warm at recess. Thank you.

Thank you again, parents, for all of your support. Call anytime if you have questions.
