

March 11-15, 2019

Reading month is in full swing, so read, read, READ! We want to reach our goal of being able to attend the Final Event, so please make this a high priority in your child's life this week. Remember, 15 minutes a night is all it takes!

Important Events This Week:

- Career Day - Monday
- Homework Packet with #4.16, #4.17, and #4.18 Due - Wednesday
- Dress Like an Animal Day – Wednesday
- Reading Log #2 Due - Friday

There will be homework again this week. There will be the 3 math sheets and the reading month assignment to read 15 minutes a night. Homework is due on Wednesday.

Again, March is Reading Month, and we are very excited to work toward our goal here at Marshall, both in our classroom and as a whole school. We are asking that each child read at least 15 minutes a night () or get at least 105 minutes of reading in each week) in order to participate in our Marshall Final Event. Not only that, students who do achieve the goal also get 2 FREE TICKETS TO A WHITECAPS GAME!!! Every child is expected to be reading, and the more the better. Yes, a parent reading to a child also counts😊. I also have weekly competitions for the reader with the highest number of minutes in our classroom. Reading forms are due on Fridays. We are all off to a great start! At the end of the month, whoever has read the most time gets to have a very special lunch with me! That student even gets to pick what they want to eat too. How exciting!

Thank you again, parents, for all of your support. Call anytime if you have questions.
